

To All Concerned,

I am opposed to Docket 03-104. The interference potential to the present licensed and Part 15 users of this spectrum is too great. Power lines are proposed as the means of transmission for this broad band signal. I know of no way to shield sensitive receivers and equipment in my own household from a source of RF in this spectrum when my house is wired with the very carrier of the interference.

Bill Ramsey
KA8WTK